PRESENTATION UN Global Study on Children Deprived of Liberty, December 18th, 2020

We are all responsible for making sure that everyone feels safe, happy and engaged. Here are a few rules that we should keep in mind at this presentation:

- 1. Treat others as you would like to be treated: during the event, through the chat and/or on social media, please do not shout, tease, bully or use any forms of violence or bad language.
- 2. Treat everyone equally: We are all equal, regardless of race, gender, age, religion, education, cultural background or anything else. There will be many different opinions and ideas and it is important that we welcome and celebrate diversity.
- 3. Listening to others: We want to hear what all participants have to say. Everyone should feel welcomed and listened to in our shared space. Don't interrupt. If you have questions during the presentation, ask them in the chat or when our moderator Carrie van der Kroon allows you to unmute your microphone and video.
- 4. Participation is voluntary: It is your choice to take part and you can decide to leave the presentation at any time.
- 5. Safety for everyone: If anyone treats you or anyone else in a way you think is not safe or appropriate, then you can tell our colleague Daniëlle de Jong by emailing d.dejong@defenceforchildren.nl.
- 6. Safety online: Please be aware that this presentation will be recorded by Defence for Children. Please do not take photos, screenshots or records of this presentation and share them publicly. Defence for Children will share this presentation on the website.
